FOIA Case: 104947A

DEPT MR 59349

Dear Joseph Lloyd:

This responds to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request which was received by this office on 15 August 2018, for "Any and all materials relating to Alan David Standorf, a civilian employee at Vint Hill Farm who was found dead in his car of an apparent blunt force blow to the back of the head around January 4, 1991. As previously provided, your letter has been assigned Case Number 104947. Please refer to this case number when contacting us about your request. Your request has been processed under the provisions of the FOIA. There are no assessable fees for this request; therefore, we did not address your fee category.

Security management files are maintained on NSA affiliates. Therefore, a search of our security filing systems was conducted. Our records do not reflect that Alan David Standorf has ever been affiliated with this Agency; thus, no records were located.

To the extent that you are seeking intelligence information on Alan David Standorf, please be advised that NSA collects and provides intelligence derived from foreign communications to policymakers, military commanders, and law enforcement officials. We do this to help these individuals protect the security of the United States, its allies, and their citizens from threats such as terrorism, weapons of mass destruction, foreign espionage, international organized crime, and other hostile activities. What we are authorized to do, and how we do it, is described in Executive Order 12333. Information about how NSA conducts signals intelligence activities is available on the websites of NSA (www.nsa.gov) and the Office of the Director of National Intelligence (www.dni.gov).

To respond to your request, NSA would have to confirm or deny the existence of intelligence records on you. Were we to do so in your case, we would have to do so for every other requester. This would enable, for example, a terrorist or other adversary to file a FOIA request with us in order to determine whether he or she was under surveillance or had evaded it. This in turn would allow that individual to better assess whether they could successfully act to damage the national security of the United States. For such reasons, we can neither confirm nor deny the existence or non-existence of the records you requested.

The FOIA exempts several categories of information from disclosure. Its first exemption indicates that it does not apply to matters that are authorized by Executive Order to be kept secret and properly classified in the interest of national defense or foreign relations. The fact of the existence or non-existence of intelligence records on any individual, including yourself, is an appropriately classified matter. Paragraph 3.6(a) of Executive Order 13526 ("Classified National Security Information") specifically authorizes this type of response, also known as a Glomar response, to such requests made under the FOIA.

Moreover, the third exemption under the FOIA authorizes the withholding of information specifically protected from disclosure by statute. The fact of the existence or non-existence of records responsive to your request is currently exempted from disclosure by the following statutes: Title 18 U.S. Code 798; Title 50 U.S. Code 3024(i); and Section 6, Public Law 86-36 (50 U.S. Code 3605).

To the extent that you are seeking non-intelligence information on Alan David Standorf, a thorough search of our files was conducted, but no records responsive to your request were located.

You may appeal this decision. If you decide to appeal, you should do so in the manner outlined below. NSA will endeavor to respond within 20 working days of receiving your appeal, absent any unusual circumstances.

- The appeal must be sent in via U.S. postal mail, fax or electronic delivery (e-mail) and addressed to:
